Outstanding Univ. Faculty Members, Prominent Nisei Figure Judges at Que. JCCA Oratorical Contest

MONTREAL — The forthcoming Second Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Quebec JCCA on Feb. 21 at D'Arcy McGee Hall will include on its panel of judges two noted faculty members of universities in Montreal and a leading Nisei community figure.

Prof. A. L. Phelps of the McGill University English Department will serve as one of the judges. Prof. Phelps is not only well known to the students, but also to the general public through his weekly radio commentaries over the CBC network. Noted as a wit and a raconteur, he is a leading authority on Canadian literature.

Mr. D. D. Smith of the Sir George Williams College will also be serving on the panel. As a students' counsellor, Mr. Smith is noted for his battery of psychological tests which he applies to all and sundry at Sir George. Besides helping to solve students' vocational and personal problems, Mr. Smith is a lecturer in Education and Industrial Psychology.

The third member of the panel, Miss T. Hidaka, is known through her past services as an Educational Supervisor for all the ghost towns during the evacuation years. At present, she has a position in the Montreal Neurological Institute as a medico-social worker.

To date, there are eight aspiring orators entered in the contest with prospects of more. Keen interest has been shown in the community. Orators will vie for the Quebec JCCA Challenge Trophy to be awarded the best speaker of the night.

Mighty Tyrants

Babies are fine things. I like them. In the same manner I like cobras and spiders in my lunch-bag.

Having several assorted infants visiting our household from time to time or meeting up with them elsewhere, I have had many an opportunity to think about infants in general.

One of the more curious things about babies is their ability to dominate and completely hold adults under their spell in the same way the television set has done in the living-room scene. They are cunningly artless in their behaviour and if one were so bold as to refrain from paying attention to them or cease from uttering cooing and, if one were to think about it, rather idiotic noises, they will make their displeasure known in emphatic manner.

Adults I know who are basically intelligent people will suddenly come out with all kinds of fantastic sounds upon meeting a specimen of an enfant terrible. Such sounds range from loud sucking noises to animal expressions of delight, each person trying to outdo the other in versatility and volume.

And if one were independent enough not to join in this wild melee of worshippers, the infant immediately fixes a baleful eye at you and mentally takes note that she must cry more lustily if she were to be suddenly left alone in the room with you. And you go cringing about when the parent(s) come swiftly to the rescue and look askance at you, and you quickly hide the weapon you were beginning to blandish with malicious intent. If elephants have excellent memories, then I would say that babies come a good second best.

Life takes on a different aspect once a baby enters into the daily routine of the household. It is a moment when the whole world stops in its headlong flight, and shudders, as it were, in nameless agony. For unto all, a king is born, and how jealously and despotically he will guard his domain.

They have a way about them, waddling like ducks all over your freshly shined shoes or playing prettily with your record album. These are meaningly qualities that foretell some future talent or at least, an artist in the making, the doting parents tell us, that must not be nipped in the bud.

And to think what horror I must have been when I was a young cub, complete with nippled milk bottle and dripping diaper.

Noted Japan Artists For Kisaragi Concert

One of Japan's leading sopranos, Miss Kiyoko Otani, and a classical Japanese dancer, Mrs. Sumi Yukawa, will be guest artists at the Kisaragi Club concert planned for March 21 at the Ukrainian Hall. Both are now in New York, the latter the wife of the famous Nobel Prize winner, Hideki Yukawa.

Two Nisei to Tour Ont. In Ballet Co.

COBOURG, Ont. — The Volkoff Canadian Ballet, regarded as a pioneer in Canadian ballet, now reorganized as a "concert group" for the purpose of touring Ontario, marked its return to the ballet scene with a concert in the Cobourg Opera House on Feb. 7. Dancing in the company were two youthful Toronto Nisei dancers, Naomi Kimura and David Toguri.

The Volkoff company presented its premiere of Folkine's ballet, Le Coq d-Or. The group was revitalized when a number of professional dancers returned to form the foundation of the company.

Ont. JCCA to Meet in Toronto for Sixth Annual Conference, Mayor Lamport Guest Speaker

TORONTO — With special emphasis on organization, and budget and finance, the Sixth Annual Ontario JCCA Conference will be held with Toronto, the host chapter, welcoming delegates from Kent, London and Hamilton for the two-day affair on February 28-March 1 at the King Edward Hotel.

Decisions reached by the provincial conference on those vital subjects may have an important bearing on the future of the entire JCCA organization with the Fifth National JCCA Conference slated for Easter weekend in Vancouver.

Discussion on organization will not only be held on the provincial level but on the national which is in a critical stage. A decision will be likely reached as to whether the National JCCA will be maintained in its present state or be reduced to some other form, and consequently to be presented at the forthcoming National Conference.

With delegates registering at 9 a.m. on Feb. 28, the first session will begin with welcome addresses by Edward Ide, Toronto president, and Mikio Nakamura, Ontario president. Chapter reports, discussion on budget and finance and national organization will cover most of the first day's activity.

On the following day, March 1, delegates will discuss the provincial organization, future programme and also the matter of delegation to the National Conference.

Feature of the social events of the two-day conference which includes a banquet and a dance, will be the guest speaker who this year is Mayor Allan Lamport, Toronto's colorful and aggressive chief citizen. Mayor Lamport is expected to address the delegates, observers and guests at the conference banquet at Muirhead's Restaurant on Feb. 28.

'RASHOMON', '51 WINNER, BACK IN CONTENTION FOR ACADEMY AWARD, UNPRECEDENTED MOVE

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — When the "Oscars" are handed out for the best performances and pictures of 1952 next March, don't be surprised to see "Rashomon" back in the limelight.

That it was shown among nine others last week to a select group of movie directors puts the Japanese movie, which hoisted the Nippon movie industry into international limelight, was reported by a Kyodo News Agency correspondent here.

This alone, according to the correspondent, puts "Rashomon" as a contender for the "Oscar" as the "best directed" film for 1952.

Last year, it received a special "Oscar" for the "best foreign-language movie after playing in Li'l Tokyo's Linda Lea theatre in May, 1951. Subsequently it was taken over by RKO, subtitled with English and screened in Beverly Hill's arty Canon theatre. This latter showing, the Academy of Arts rule indicates, made "Rashomon" eligible for general competition for "Oscars" and has been placed on the 1952 list of eligible pictures.

"Oscars" are presented on the basis that a film is shown in the greater Los Angeles area.

That a Japanese-made motion picture is the first film being made eligible two successive years for Academy recognition is unprecedented.

The Hollywood Foreign Press Association composed of representatives from some 50 nations, is presenting a special award to Daiei Studios for its "Rashomon" on Feb. 14 at the third World Film Festival at Club Delmar in Santa Monica.

Fifth Bride Arrives, To Reside in Sask.

VANCOUVER — The fifth Japanese war bride to arrive in Canada, Mrs. Teruko Beeds, arrived in Vancouver on Feb. 6 with her husband, Pte. Kenneth R. Beeds, en route to his home in Lloydminster, Sask.

The couple marked their first wedding anniversary just prior to reaching Vancouver as their plane flew over the Pacific to Canada.

R. Mayhew Addresses Japan-Canada Society

TOKYO — Robert W. Mayhew, Canadian ambassador to Japan, recently told the first post-war luncheon meeting of the newly reorganized Canada-Japan Society that he hoped Japan's entry into the United Nations would not be held up much longer.

Mayhew who is an honorary president of the group, told the 100 Canadian and Japanese members who were present, that the UN was "man's best hope for the peaceful co-existence of nations" and that he welcomed Japan's co-operation with the UN.

The Canada-Japan Society was reorganized recently with the objective of promoting friendly relations. President Iyemasa Tokugawa who was Japanese minister to Canada prior to the war, welcomed Mayhew and his wife.

Chicago Woman, Son Found Dead, Oriental-Like Violent Situation

CHICAGO, Ill. — A double tragedy was disclosed last week in a Chicago apartment when a Japanese woman was found beaten to death with a bloody hammer nearby and her son was lying dead in the adjoining room with his wrist and arms slashed and his stomach disemboweled with scissors.

Police said that Kenji Kasai, 32, apparently beat his 57-year old mother to death and then slashed himself. The son, for some unknown reason, had taken a vow of silence against his mother several years ago.

The bodies were found by Tom Oishi, manager of the apartment building, after he had not seen the victims for five days.

The father of the family hanged himself in a forest preserve in 1949.

Nine Groups to Enter Candidates for Toronto YBS Miss Valentine Contest, Six Already Named

One of the attractions of the social season in Toronto will be a Miss Valentine Contest sponsored by the Toronto Young Buddhists Society with the Queen to be crowned at their Annual Valentine Dance at the UNF Hall, this Friday, Feb. 13. Contestants from nine major Nisei clubs and organizations in Toronto are expected to vie for the honor.

Judging of the Queen will be based on 25 per cent popularity vote of the public while a panel of judges will base 75 per cent on personality, poise, beauty, and other factors. Judges will also choose two attendants.

The main objective for the Miss Valentine Contest, T.Y.B.S. executives state, is "not for the purpose of competing beauty but to climax the day of cupids and arrows."

Be that as it may, it is the first time that a contest on such a wide scale has been attempted among Nisei groups in Toronto.

Nine groups will likely send entrants. Representatives, to date, are Eiko Iwashita, Toronto J.C.C.A.; Mitsy Yoshida, Club Adelphi; Rose Mori, Club Rhapsody; Lily Matsuo, Toronto Anglican Y.P.A.; Susie Tanouye, Club Ami; Nancy Ikebata, Club After-Hours. Three other groups, Queen Street United Young Adults Group, Metropolitan Nisei Fellowship, and the host group, Toronto Y.B.S., have yet to name their candidates.

All ballots must be handed in by 11 p.m. and candidates are requested to make their appearance by 10 p.m.

BAITING THE BULL

man and authority

By T. M. K.

As I have said before, democracy is when a person's free will, his freedom to choose, is respected. And I have said that in a society (democracy is a society) there must be order, and to maintain that order there must be authority, and to uphold that authority there must be rules. The better the discipline (not regimentation) the better the efficiency.

I have said also that obedience to the right authority is freedom, while disobedience is slavery. Presuming that we will accept right authority, how are we to recognize it in its visible aspects? Have we ever looked around us and realized we are surrounded by the visible material aspects of authority? Take a good look, my friends, and here after do not scoff at what you saw but did not understand in reality.

Authority, as such, is understood by the intellect, it needs the material senses to convey that idea to us in many ways. For instance, to hear the voice of authority we must listen with our ears to words, or read with our eyes the words, through which it is relayed to us. However, just to hear or read the edicts of authority is not enough for us forgetful humans. We have to be reminded continually in everything. Take the standards of measurement whether of weight or coinage or what-have-you. One pound is always sixteen ounces, no more no less, and fifty cents is only fifty cents, and to safeguard these there is an official standard kept safely in official quarters which can check the scales . . . to prevent cheating. Why do you suppose there are curbs on the sidewalks? That's to remind pedestrians that the road is for vehicles, and if you stray off carelessly you're liable to get hurt.

Talking about the vestments of authority, what about the police uniforms, ministerial collars, and why teachers sit at a special desk in front of the class, the Queen's crown and scepter, the parliamentary mace, and so on down the line?

We know that the police stand for law and order. Even if we don't know each policeman personally, as soon as we see the uniform we know it means law and order. It's easy to recognize. Some police betray their uniform, but that doesn't cancel one bit the authority they stand for.

Perhaps these outward signs in themselves aren't very important but when you realize that they represent such things as law and order, knowledge, sovereignty and loyalty, nationhood, safety, rights and privileges, etc., then they become important to every one of us, and only the ignorant would ridicule them. If you would preserve these you obey the rules set down by authority for the preservation of these metaphysical concepts. Without these visible aspects we would be hard put to remember them all at the right time.

If the visible aspects of authority mean so much to our physical life, our civil life, then how much more important they ought to be in our intellectual life, our spiritual life! If we need constant reminders in order to be safe from bodily harm, in order to stay on the sidewalk so to speak, how much more vigilant we must be to keep our intellectual life on an even keel, to keep our spiritual life alive and functioning. Then are we to scoff because those who know the dangers of treading unwarily alone, look to authority to guide them?

Our daily life is full of repetition, full of constant reminders. If we think we can get along without them, we find ourselves becoming dirty, unkept, sleepless, hungry, in more ways than just physically. If we think we can get along without the visible helps we exaggerate our self-sufficiency, for if we were so omniscient that we would get along without these material helps we would not be in the muck and mire of our confusions today.

The pressing question today is: Out of all the multitude of signs and symbols, of slogans and platitudes, of civil laws old and new, of standards that seem to shift with the wind and the weather, of obligations more in the breach than in the observation, which are the ones which we must recognize as the right ones? How are we to know?

If you dig deep into your consciousness you will come up with something that might surprise you; you thirst for good; you want the truth; you want to be wise.

Have you ever seen the smirk on the face of a shallow skeptic who thinks there is something unnecessary and even ridiculous in an ordinary joe wanting all this? Have you thought that it might be his own inadequacy, his own inability, incapacity to understand his own real need that makes him jeer? To him it seems that the universal human hunger for spiritual reality, the Absolute, is only an abnormal psychosis, a sort of neurotic itch that comes from un-appeased bodily appetites. This spiritual hunger in man is but added proof that he is more than animal only, that he has a soul, and that soul yearns for its Creator.

As the soul yearns for the Eternal Absolute, the intellect understands that and finds it reasonable. If we are going to look for perfection in anything, then it is only reasonable that we look for that which is Perfection, itself, eternal and absolute. Then if we are going to measure humanity by a standard, that standard will have to be absolute, a final authority that is unchanging. That authority, translated in such wise that it can be understood within the framework of our natural limitations reveals to us in many ways the purpose for which man was created.

To recognize that authority, we have but to look around us at the world, what we know of it, its immutable laws. In so doing we begin to understand something of the Infinite, we realize how much we do not know, how much there is to learn, and how much we need help to attain a unity with the Source of good, the Absolute Truth, Infinite Wisdom itself.

But because we are still only human beings, limited beings, we need the visible aspects of Authority. To keep from being run over by cars we stay on the right side of the curb; to keep from being imprisoned we stay on the right side of our civil laws; therefore to keep ourselves from eternal destruction, we ought to know which is the right side of the Last Word. If we defy these authorities, it is only reasonable that we pay the price of our pride: Destruction.

If we would only realize that the three levels of what I called "authorities," stem from One Authority, we would not be separating our animal nature from our spiritual, putting them into divided spheres as if they were not intricably inter-related. Such division is un-natural. We can be bodily luxurious and spiritually starved, or even dead. We can be intellectually cancerous and not know it. That terrible disease starts the moment we deny Authority, the very moment we are too proud to accept curbs for our intellectual pride, the moment we put ourselves above law. The payment exacted is terrible also, for often we do not recognize it as payment of as terrible. We think, and this is a delusion, that we have achieved liberty. Only when we have reached inevitable destruction will we feel the despair of it all.

If we could discover for our individual selves, through a lucid process of reasoning, what is the right authority on which to base our appreciation of the standards visible in all areas of our daily living, then we would not scoff parrot-like at [illegible] limits to liberty [illegible] from degenerating into [illegible] at familiar signposts, guides, [illegible] whatever we [illegible] visible and material [illegible] that [illegible] order in society [illegible]

MR. COUTTS AND I

"You never send Valentine Cards!" There was a look of incredulous disbelief on her face.

"Nope," I said nonchalantly, digging my hand deeper into my pocket, surveying with righteous scorn the mass of people milling around the Valentine Cards counter.

"Not even to your . . ." The word "boyfriend" trembled on her lip, but she changed it to "best friend." "Not even to your best friend . . . or to your mother?"

"Nope, I love my mother. I love my friends. I love most of my relatives, but I'm not sending them Valentine cards."

That was pretty definite. Mr. Coutts of Hallmark Cards Inc. and I don't see eye to eye on Valentine Cards.

I've learned the hard way not to throw around Valentine Cards indiscriminately. I refuse to buy Valentine Cards just to help Mr. Coutts boost his sales another half a million dollars this year. He, along with other big business men, has commercialized Christmas to such an extent that only my innate stubbornness and depleted finances around that time of the year have allowed me to maintain a proper perspective. But when it comes to St. Valentine's Day, I'll fight every inch of the way to preserve it for "lovers only".

Mr. Coutts and I might have got along very well when I was about seven years of age, when I wasn't much concerned about the significances of anything. It was vaguely brought to my simple mind that Saint Valentine was the patron saint of love and lovers and a "good kindly man". But then, not having experienced anything in the way of love, and having experienced only discomforts, such as hour-long sittings at churches in the presence of the only "good, kindly man" of my acquaintance, such information was soon forgotten. My chief concern -- which no doubt, gave Mr. Coutts a new angle for greater sales -- was the cardboard box our Grade 2 teacher put on her desk, gaily decorated with red hearts, on February 14th. Into it we dropped handfuls of cards, some laboriously made during our project periods, some bought at the corner drug store. Our actions were prompted, not by love, but by something close to competition and the collecting instinct. Just how many more valentines I could show off before my less fortunate school mates was Valentine Day to me. Mr. Coutts would have made money then. We could have shaken hands, then, as friends.

I think Mr. Coutts and I might have got along very well even to the age of twelve. At that time the lowest forms of animal existence were 13-year-old boys, all school teachers, Sunday school teachers and disciplinarians, even mothers and fathers. That was the year of secret societies, pass words, strong, fierce promises of undying loyalty for the "gang". And Mr. Coutts' mean little Valentines, showing school teachers with horse-faces, boys with cabbage ears and Mortimer Snerd personalities, were bought up fast and furiously for Valentine's Day. Mr. Coutts sure cleaned up during that period!

The autumn I was thirteen, I suddenly found my erstwhile gang impossible, and forsook them for a lady teacher in first year High School. I can't account for that overwhelming crush for a lady teacher, unless it was that I felt no one understood me, except Miss Harris. She was a lovely thing! She was blonde and young, and I remember. I developed quite a feeling against the English Teacher who used to walk her home after school. She had a way of making a lesson interesting, and a way of looking into one's eyes with a thousand dancing lights in her own. But my kind of love was inarticulate. I was a shy, strangely-mixed up creature, scrawny and clumsy. Aching for recognition, I worked harder than ever on her subjects, aped her mannerisms, and prayed that when I grew up, I would look like her. That's where my friend, Coutts, came in. In persuasive advertisements he told me that there was a way to Miss Harris' heart. I bought a beautiful Valentine Card, resplendant with forget-me-nots and bluebirds and hearts and flowers. And as is the custom, instead of signing my name, I scrawled "Guess Who?" Miss Harris guessed alright, but guessed all wrong, and another girl in the class whose poise and charm I envied, got the credit for my Valentine. But I was too proud to mention it. I was off "Women Teachers" for all time. I began to doubt Mr. Coutts' intention on behalf of St. Valentine.

Now, Mr. Coutts has a wonderously elegant Valentine which sells on the counters for about $1.50, with English script written across it: "To Someone Very Dear on Valentine's Day". Maybe there are women who like that sort of thing, but whenever I see so huge a display of commercialized affection, I remember Glen. Glen was quite a guy, with plenty of brawn, deep blue eyes and a crooked grin. He was, to me at sixteen the epitome of manliness and good looks. If he had said to me, "Cin, you go jump in the lake", I think I would have. And he never got to know the depths or extent of my devotion which I had intended to profess a la Mr. Coutts. "Poor Jake", he said, "I feel sorry for him. That blonde dame in Division [illegible] gave him a giant valentine and the whole team found out about it! Imagine any female being silly enough to send a fella a valentine, eh, Cin?" I agreed in a very small voice, and tore up the one I had in my pocket.

And then there was Tony, tall and dark and handsome. He had

優勝日の當日は久方ぶりの晴れだつた。そちこちの水たまりに、青い空と白い雲とが浮んでいた。赤トンボがすいとんで、馬場のひとたちは、みんなまぶしそうに歩いていた。

米太郎一家にとつて運命の日である。この日の成績如何でミシフの相場（値）がきまるのだ。すでに初日の一着で、二、三の買人が訪ねてきたくらいだつた。大西騎手は朝早くからミシフの手入れに餘念がなかつた。焼チユウで身體を洗つたり、兩股をたくみにマツサージしたりしていた。

米太郎もこの日のミシフのために、新しいむくしをあんでいた。そのむくしのなかには、馬頭觀世音のお守りがたたみこまれた。必勝の願いと怪我をせぬようにとの祈りからだつた。

大平は口笛を吹きながら、次の競馬鋼路にきの背造りをやつていた。

第一レースの出場をつげる鐘がなつて、歓聲があがつた。そして時はたつていつた。

新馬の優勝競走は、午後三時ごろになるだろうと、三人はそのときを待つた。

二時が近づくにしたがつて大平の胸のときめきが強まつた。それは運命を待つものの ひとしくする気持だつた。米太郎のキセルも落ちつきなく叩かれた。大西騎手だけは勝算のあるものの安けさを見せて、新聞などを拾いよんでいた。米太郎親子や、近くのウマヤのひとたちにとりかこまれ、思い思いの聲援をあびながら、ミシフが尻毛をふりふり、馬場入りしたのはすこし前だつた。

それから二十分とたゝなかつた。米太郎親子の前に、冷い運命の大戸が下されたのは。

大西騎手の蒼白な顔が、米太郎のとり亂した喚き聲が、一ぺんに大平の身近かにふつた。

スタートの直前だつた、トキツという太田騎手の乗つていた馬が、ミシフの前肢を強かに蹴つた。

馬上の大西が、ハツと思つたときには憐れにもミシフは骨折馬になつてしまつていた。

運命は一瞬にして来たり、劫苦の道は果しなく長かつた。

翌日も——風こそあつたが秋晴れの明るい日だつた、馬場のウマヤはすつかり空になつていた昨日までの賑いはどこへやら、まるで嵐のあとの静けさだ

それは愚かなるものたちの榮枯盛衰の運命を宿した假寓に、ふさわしい落莫さであつた。

廣寞の野末にくつきり浮んだ十勝の山脈にも、遠々と續く木柵にも、秋の静けさが再びとりもどされていた。

米太郎と大平は、際限もない思いに沈んでいつた。

たゞ一頭とり殘されたミシフも、首をたれて蕭々と吹く秋風をきいていた。

南北老人

◇天皇がお出かけの時だつて、昔のような大ゲサなことはなくなつた。筆者は一度京都で見ただけなんだが、沿道に立つ警官も至つて疎らで、警官の乗つて居るオートバイの先導で、御召自動車が進み、お伴の人々の乗車が續いて居るだけ、通行止めなんかムロンなく、天皇の服装も、背廣にソフト帽という簡易なものだつた。——昔ての天皇行幸といえば半時間も前から通行止めで、警官憲兵のほかに京都ならば第十六師團が出動して沿道にカーキ色の人垣を作り、天皇旗を持つた騎兵を先頭として、イカメしい行列を作り、天皇も大元帥服に盛裝というイデタチだつたんだが、誠に見事な變りようなんだ。皇族方——といつても、今では秩父、高松、三笠の三宮しかなくなつたんだが、其の旅行なんて至つて手軽なものになり、宮様だち自身でも、自由と気樂に満悦して御座る様子だ。何ヶ月か前、筆者は三笠宮の旅行情景を拜見する機會があつたが、騎兵將校の軍服をサラリと棄てゝ、歴史研究の大學生々活に入り、背廣にソフト帽姿で、誠にタッタクなげであつた。そしてイナカ娘だちと、手輕にお手々つないで、野外の何とかダンスやらいうものを樂しまれて居た。

◇ダンスと言えば、皇太子も嫌いの方ではないんだという。現に學習院の同窓會の折同級の女の児だちと手をつないで、スクエア・ダンスとかいうものに「興じられた」と報道されて居た。但しそれは一時の氣まぐれ、眞剣にお好きなのはスポーツ各般、中にも馬術と水泳とは、自身でも相當の所までやつて居られるらしく、テニスとピンポンの方は、普通という所なんだろう此の一、二年はまたスキーを始められたが、何しろ物見高い日本だ。「それ殿下のスキーだ」と見物人がワッと押し寄せ、おまけに無作法と無遠慮とを看板にして居る寫眞班がプリンスがコロげる所をネラつて居るという有様なので兎角、氣遣い勝ちになるともいう。スケーチングも日本では全盛時代になつて、屋内スケート場の大きいのが、東京に三つ、名古屋に一つ、大阪にも二つが出來た。中にも東京の「スポーツ・センター」なんていうのは、横が二百フイート縦が三百四十フイート、一万五千人はいれるという大きなもんで、お客の多い日には、六千人位も滑りに來るという。皇太子なんかも、行つて見たいのは山々なんだろうけれど何しろ自身が見世物扱いされるんでネ、出足が澁ろうというものではないか。——せめてカナダでは、名物の氷上戰をお目にかけたらいゝと思うんだが、四月では時季はずれかナ。

◇遊ぶ事では、ほかに將棋がお好きらしい。實力は素人六級に二枚落の程度、二十分間の早差しだという。麻雀も知つて居るが至つてヘタで、弱い連中しか相手にされんという。——食べ物の好物は魚よりも肉類、フランス風の料理が気に入つてるともいう。特にライス・カレーがお好きという評判のあるのは、學校の食堂で、手軽に食べられるからの選擇が、ウワサになつたまでのものだろう。何しろ四十圓のシロモノでは、ソチラの十セント料理だ。ウマそうなわけがなかろうではないか。——現在、町の料理屋でも、八十圓以下のライスカレーなんていうものはない。大がい百圓、或はそれ以上なんだ。

◇最後に皇太子に對する外國人の印象はドウかというと親しく英語を教えたヴアイニング、ローズ兩女史によると口を揃えてチャーミングだという。そして頗る眞ッ直〃で正直で、ユーモアのセンスを持つてるとも言つてる。また外國人に接して、固くなつたりオドノヘしたりするようなことは先ずないらしい。尤も初めの間は、接見の外人に對し、無口、無愛想であつたらしいが、近ごろは、大いによくなつたとの評判だ。——だから、カナダを旅行されても、カナダ國民に、良い印象を與わられることは、大体間違いがない。——といつても、見せ物にはして上げないことだネ。上記の通り、そういうことは非常にイヤがられる。また折角の見學の邪魔にもなる。何事も自然に、そして自由にくつろいだ気持ちで「樂しい旅行」をされ「萬般の見聞をひろめる」お手傳いをして頂きたいと思う。——歓迎の爲めに儀禮新調なんて無用のことだ。失禮でない限り、背廣でも普段服でも澤山だ。そして妄りに四角張らないことだ。態度だつて低頭平身は昔のこと、言葉もキョウコウ謹言は今ではハヤラない。——何事も自然に、自由に。そして皇太子を窮屈がらせたり、固くならせたりしないようは、皆さん頼んますぞ。（完）

ビーシー生

誰人も黄金の環を尊しとする。なぜ尊いのか。ニュー・カナデアンである我々は、段々と復活する日本の姿を見て共通の喜びを感ずる。と同時に日加兩國に介在する我々の責任も大きく痛感するものである。

我々は市協や宗教團体又はクラブなどのグループを構成してよりよき將來のために努力している。すなわち、これらのものは一つながりのチェーンであり黄金の環であるのだ。これを尊しとし、寶として持ちつゞけ進んでいるのである一歩でも行進が亂れてはならない。

然るに、都會に住むまじめな友人が來宅して話すには、彼の信頼する白人があの某々は質が甚だ悪い——と告げたとのことだ。評判は聞いていたがそれほどでないと思つていた。連帶責任から自責するまえに、まず當の責任者のマヒし汚れた精神を力一ぱいムチ打ちたいと思うものがある。

我々はどんな場合でも民族の誇りをすてず、強く生きたいと願つている。行進の歩を亂さずに正々堂々と發展したいものである。近來、宗教團体の一部でも不良たちがよからぬことをしていると聞いた。天知る地知るである。この際家長格の市協が主唱し、思い切つた淨化運動を起してもらいたい。

うめくさ

オタワの日本大使館が、日本にのみ國籍を有する人々の住所氏名を知りたいと發表してから急に歸化する手續きをするものが出て來たようである。大使館で知りたいと言つているのは、日本にのみ籍を有する單一國籍者なのであるが、これは所謂日本人ナショナルであるから大使館や領事館がそれらの人々がどこに居るかを知りたいのは當然なことであろう。戰後多くの日系人が歸化手續きをしてカナダ人になつたが、中にはまだ日本の籍を脱く手續きをしていないために所謂二重國籍者になつている人々もある。手續きがちよつと面倒なので怠つている向きもあるようだが、前記の大使館の發表を見てから、この方も急に思い出したように手續きをニューカナダアンに依頼してくる向きが多い。

これらのことは各地の市協でも援助しているところであるがニューカナダアンでも出來るだけの便宜をはかつている。老年恩給下附申請などとともに、各種の手續に就いては毎週水曜日か土曜日の朝にお訪ね下さると好都合である。他の日は新聞發送その他で、ちよつと手がはずし難いので。

日本は報復的空襲を覺悟せねばなるまいと成行注視

【東京發】台灣に關する政策の變更について結論に到達するのは時期早尙だと岡崎外相は語つている如く、日本ではこの問題について注意深い態度を持している。しかしながらもし國府軍によつて中共封鎖が行われるとすれば日本の貿易に影響することになろうさは岡崎外相も認めてはいるが明らさまに、だから中共封鎖に反對だとは言つておらないところがもし日本を中共本土に對する作戰の後方基地として味方になつてくれと賴まれた場合、日本は何んと出るであろうか。現在日本は朝鮮戰爭の作戰基地として使用されていることにまず滿足しているが、さて中共に對する作戰に同樣責任を引き受けることさに日本は同意するだろうか。しかし或はするかも知れぬ。しかし日本人はそうなれば中共からの報復的空襲を覺悟せねばなるまい。もう一つの心掛りはもし蔣介石がどうしても中共本土を襲擊すると頑張つてこれを行う場合、たとい複雜な成行きが伴つてもあくまで蔣介石を援助するものか、それとも蔣を見殺しにするのか、ということについて米國の眞意が奈邊にあるかを知りたいとするところである

英勞働派主張

【ロンドン發】英國やヨーロッパ諸國では、米國がこれ以上に中共に對する行動を起して西部國家群が弱らせ又は第三次大戰を起らせることのないよう、米國にお先廻りをして「あまり行き過ぎては大變だぞ」と警報を放つている。とくに英國の勞働派は米國が中共封鎖を行おうと、中共戰を起そうと米國單獨でやればよかろうという意見をハッキリ示している。また歐洲各國でも台灣に關する新決定は共和黨內の極右派に媚びる以外のものでないと評している

「朝鮮」に關し米國連代表が下準備

【ニューヨーク、國連發】米國の國連代表團は先週以來、三月末に再開される國連總會に臨むに當り、共和黨政權となつて以來最初の重大な米國の出方について要談を重ねている。新らしく首席代表となつたヘンリー・カボット・ロッジ二世はすでに數度にわたり朝鮮問題についてのみ代表と懇談する一方、各國代表にあたり、米國が國連に出そうさする要請について意見を求めその反響を打診している。消息筋の傳えるところによると米國代表團は國連總會に「もつと朝鮮戰爭に國連加入各國が力を注ぎ、負担を重くして貰いたい」と要請することになろうといわれる

【ワシントン發】米上院共和黨議員リーダーのロバート・タフト議員は八日「米國はすでに中共と全面的な戰爭に入つている」と言明、いまさら中共封鎖したからといつて戰爭になることはなかろうし、もう戰爭になつているのだから、マ元帥が主張した通り、滿洲爆擊もよし、將介石が本土進攻したいというのならヘルプすればよいではないかと大いに氣焰をあげた

Mustangs Win Jr. Overtime Thriller, 45-44

TORONTO — Last week's games in the Toronto Nisei Basketball League saw one of the most exciting tilts of the season when the first-place Mustang Juniors nipped Rhapsody. The other tilts went according to form, Orphans toying with Barons, and the unbeatable Mustangs beating Rebels.

In one of the best played games of the season, which had everything from thrilling baskets, a tie at full time, overtime, and the tying and winning baskets with a second left in the overtime, the Junior Mustangs squeezed out a slim 45-44 1-point margin win over Club Rhapsody. It was a tough game for Rhapsody to lose, who had victory in their grasp, only to lose out in a matter of seconds, and certainly a well-earned triumph for the Junior Mustangs, with their backs to the wall and fighting back to clinch the Junior title.

Club Rhapsody had a 7-point lead at half time. Within 10 minutes of the 2nd half, Mustangs zoomed right back and took the lead. The lead exchanged hands several times and Mustangs took the front seat with about a minute left. Rhapsody promptly tied it up at full time, necessitating overtime.

The first basket in the overtime was scored by Rhapsody and Mustangs followed up and tied it up again. Roy Kobayashi, hard driving Rhapsody guard, was then fouled by Mustangs' Ron Mori, with seconds left. Kobayashi hooped the first of his 2 foul shots, giving Rhapsody a point lead. He missed his second; Joe Wani (Mustangs) grabbed the rebound and was fouled, with a second left. Mustangs then pulled the game right out of the fire as Joe Wani sunk the tying and winning baskets from the foul strip.

For the victors, Ron Mori, Dickie Tanaka, and Henry Edamura were standouts. Rhapsody's top player was Bob Adachi who garnered 20 points. Roy Kobayashi starred at guard for Rhapsody with his fine backboard plays.

The Junior tilt saw Orphans smash the low-scoring Barons 61-29. Pete Nakatsu hooped 17 points for Orphans and Frank Murata contributed 12. Only effective Baron was Joe Nekoda, hitting for 9.

Mustangs kept rolling along as they downed Rebels 53-40. Without their scoring ace Herby Miyasaki, out indefinitely with a back injury, Mustangs still dominated play. Towering Ken Miyasaki took charge and played a fine game, hooping 15 points. Old reliable Muka Makimoto and Ted Nishimoto took up the slack left by the absence of Herby, and contributed 20 points between them. Junior star, Bob Adachi hooped 9 points for Rebels, while veterans Mossy Mitsui and Mush Fukumoto came up with strong games. Mustangs effectively covered Paul Hirano, as he was only able to hit for 6, the first time this season Hirano was kept under the double figures.

HOOPBITS: Mustangs remain undefeated in the Church Intermediate "A" Loop. With the city playoffs nearing, Mustangs are hoping for the speedy recovery of Herby Miyasaki, as his loss will be a tremendous blow in their quest for the City and Ontario Championship. Mustangs also have, in their line-up big Ed Boguski, former Central Commerce and Cottage Comets star . . . Dickie Tanaka is certainly one of the most improved Junior players in the Nisei league . . . Hottest scorer in the Junior loop at present is Hamilton's Frank Shimoda.

Sandy Ono's 255 Tops in Nisei Five-Pin Bowling, Takeda Ins. Keeps Big Lead Despite Upset Loss

By wide margins, Sandy Ono and BTI dominate the Toronto Nisei Major bowling scenery. Ono, the Takeda anchorman, is the personal spotlight with no immediate threat. A good average in any league, and certainly the tops by several lengths in Nisei bowling, he is coasting in at 255. His closest rival, another veteran of the alleys, Mas Isoshima, also has no fear of being displaced from second spot, with a comfortable 242.

Portsided Maw Mori and Kaide Shimizu lead the field which is strung right down from their 233. Joe Tehara is alone at 229 while behind him are Mas Endo 228, George Ide 228, Johnnie Amemori 226, Terry Tanabe 226, Ace Fujibayashi 226, Muts Baba 225, Johnny Takeda 225 and Ed Nakamura 225.

Individual averages, together with the team standing that follows, include the results of Feb. 6.

Although upset by cellar dwellers T. Uyeda MB 5-2, it put Takeda Insurance one above the century mark. Spadina climbed into second place, a point ahead of Yamada, with 86. Lowe Bros. and Ascot Cleaners are tied for fourth with 83, while the latest team to start to hustle, El Mocambo, holds down sixth spot at 79. This year's disappointment, Urabe Insurance is next with 77, while Du-Rite rounds out the first division with 72.

The bottom half, in order, show Radio Vision, Sora, Lewis, Menzies, Stan Karn, Alexander, Wasser and Uyeda.

Mas Isoshima's 802(327) copped him high honors for last week. Following, were: T. Tanabe 784, T. Kataoka 773(328), S. Takeuchi 748(304), C. Nakagawa 747, H. Inouye 744, K. Shimizu 741(309), and N. Yano 705. J. Izumi 327.

FLYERS LOSE REPLAY, ENJOY FIELD DAY

Nisei Flyers dropped an eight minute replay of a previous incompleted game with Regent AC 3-2, on a freak goal, but came back with a vengeance by rapping Tilleys 8-0, both THL intermediate games played on Feb. 4 at Ravina Gardens. With the win and loss, their record reads 7 wins, 3 losses, 1 tie.

In the 3-2 loss, Flyers started out behind a 2-1 deficit, and although showing definite superiority, a shot from centre-ice took a weird hop and skipped through the startled Flyer goalie Bill Kurysh. Ron Pierce got the goal back for Flyers and although the Nisei stormed the Regent net in the last two minutes with six forwards, they were held at bay.

Immediately following, Flyers routed the hapless Tilleys, paced by two-goal performances by Yuki Kameoka, Roy Tanaka, and Roy Kobayashi. Other goal-getters were Ron Pierce and Roy Standish. First period score read 6-0 for Flyers.

The victory, however, was a costly one as Major Fukumoto, one of the top forwards, suffered severe facial injuries when he crashed headlong into the goalpost after a rush. He was taken to the hospital for observation and will likely be lost to the team for quite some time.

Trinity Bests AYPA In Final Nisei Tilt

Playoffs in the Toronto Nisei Badminton League will be launched in early March with Metro meeting AYPA and Juniors playing Trinity. Trinity handed AYPA their fourth straight loss on Feb. 6 in the final game to decide playoff spots.

AYPA was better than the 21-3 score would indicate. Mickey Matsubayashi and Shig Tanaka teamed to split with Ken Fukusaka-Paul Toyonaga; Tanaka and May Horiuchi split with Tom and Sue Iwasaki, and Paul and Pauline Hiramatsu split with Paul Toyonaga-Laiko Miyake to garner AY's three points.

All Nations 'B' Squad Maintains Lossless Skein, 'A' Team Faces Group Leaders In Crucial Clash

Despite the handicap of being short two girls, the All Nations "B" squad kept their undefeated string intact by rallying for a 12-12 tie in an Inter-Church shuttle clash last week. Their 4 wins and 1 tie record still leaves them on top of their grouping.

Behind 6-0 since the absence of two girls forced the "B's" to default six games, the Nisei forced the battle in coming up with the well deserved tie. Only a 15-14 loss by John Miura-Nick Kaji in a crucial game left the Nisei without the win.

Jim Hayashi and Tosh Uyeda made their league debut a winning one as they swept both of their men's double games.

Meanwhile the "A" version of the All Nations team faces a crucial game on Feb. 13 with league-leading St. Paul's. With six games played, St. Paul's have 5 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie while ANs have 3 wins, 1 loss, for a second place perch. Should the "A's" beat St. Pauls, a playoff will be in order even if St. Pauls maintains first place at the end of the season.

The "A's" have four games remaining, three home games and one away, a schedule which is favorable for their chances to cop the Inter-Church "A" League laurels.

The forthcoming annual inter-city invitational match between Montreal and Toronto has been scheduled for March 14 from 2-5 p.m. at the six-court U. of McGill Sir Arthur Currie Gym.

Femme Fare

all the girls in senior year a-flutter. And for a brief while I too, basked in his high regard. Valentine's Day brought a card enscribed: "To the sweetest girl I know . . . Will you be My Valentine?" But then I discovered that Tony had sent eleven other girls the same card. Now, Mr. Coutts and I are just nodding acquaintances.

And now that I've matured and become wiser, no amount of high-pressure advertising will make me buy Valentines. I learned the hard way that for me, my conception of Valentine Day differs from that of Mr. Coutts of Hallmark Cards Inc. St. Valentine's is for lovers mainly, and I like to leave it that way. I like to leave it as a little, private matter between two people who meet and find that meeting memorable.

My friend interrupted my thought. "Well, Cindy, let's go. No point in you sticking around the card counter!"

And suddenly, I saw the sweetest, naughtiest Coutts Valentine for only 15 cents! My friend caught me looking at it and whispered something which I didn't quite hear because I can be deaf at times. Hereditary, you know!

Anyway, I bought the Valentine - - for someone extra special! O.K. You win this round, Mr. Coutts!

CALGARY NISEI CLUB HONOURS ISSEI PIONEERS WITH CONCERT, MANY VISITORS ATTEND AFFAIR

CALGARY, Alta. — The Calgary Nisei Club sponsored its annual New Year's Concert on Jan. 24 at the Canadian Legion Hall, dedicating the affair to the old Issei of Calgary. Many visitors attended the concert, including people from Raymond, Lethbridge, Taber, and other out-of-town points.

The programme was officially opened with the singing of O Canada. Torao Odagaki, president, gave an introductory speech, briefly outlining the past activities of the club. Mistress of ceremonies, Miss Joan Kondo, bade goodbye to the old year (portrayed by Gus Yamauchi) and ushered in the new (Miss Gail Yamauchi).

Highlight of the programme was the odori, "Haikei Gobusata" by Hiroko Terakita and Eiko Mori and two ohndos "Tanko Bushi" and "Tokyo Ohndo". Addititional features were the graceful "Irish Waltz" demonstrated by four couples led by Gus Yamauchi; a hilarious pantomine, "Wreck to Ruin" directed by Mary Okamoto; and a skit, "Murder Charge" prepared by the versatile Yamauchi.

Talented singers and instrumentalists entertained the audience while an amusing recitation was given by Kathleen Matsuoka. The programme was brought to on uproarious end with a parade of elegant fashions of today's women modeled by most of the young married Nisei men of Calgary.

As a symbol of remembrance and goodwill, a gift was presented to each of the old folks who were present. George Matsuoka me'd the light luncheon which followed. Winners of door prizes were Kathleen Matsuoka, Mary Hori and Sylvia Tomimoto.
